4.	Jan Pomorski.
	The Vice-Minister Jan Pomorski, Manager of a Department, is the "eminence grise" of the Ministry of Industry. Beside Szyr, Manager of the Economic Department, Pomorski is second in command to Minc in the Ministry of Industry. Minc, Szyr, Pomorski and Wolski exert great influence in Polish industry. The general managership is in the hands of Minc. Szyr deals with the execution of top policy in reorganizing national economy in agreement with the Communist system. Pomorski's task is to execute these principles from an administrative viewpoint.  50X1-HUM
	Pomorski is a chemist and a university lecturer.
	Pomorski's task for the immediate future is to synchronize the supervision of the branches of the Ministry of Industry and of the Ministry of Navigation and Foreign Commerce. For this purpose, Pomorski's assistant, Jozef Kopaniak, has been nominated by him to the Vice-Directorship of the Personnel Office of the Ministry of Navigation and Foreign Commerce.
5.	Jozef Kopaniak.
) •
	Jozef Kopaniak  He was at one time manager of the Personnel Department at one [	of the central offices of the Cotton Industry. Recently he became manager of a branch in Silesia-Dabrowa and Wroclaw (Breslau).
ı	Kopaniak's task in the Ministry of Navigation and Foreign Commerce is to 50X1-HUM carry out a "purge" of unreliable elements. He has been entrusted with one sector of the wide-spread "combing out" in the ranks of civil servants which is to be carried out in all ministries and central offices before the general election.
6.	Waclaw Jan Ciszewski.
	50X1-HUM
	Waclaw Jan Ciszewski real name is Firstenberg) was until recently Under-Secretary of State at the Ministry of Industry. He has now, however, been nominated Deputy Vice-Chairman of the International Commercial Bureau. This institution has its seat in London. Ciszewski has been granted a salary of £6,000 a year.
7.	Province Silesia. 50X1-HUM
	General Aleksander Zawadzki is to leave his present post of governor of the province Silesia-Dabrowa. He will be nominated Minister of Recovered Territories. Zawadzki's post is to be taken over by Roward Ochap Colonel Zietek, first Vice-Governor, is to become governor of one of the western districts. The second Vice-Governor, Arka Bozek, is to be nominated manager of the Silesia-Dabrowa governor's 50X1-HUM branch for the district of Opole (*Oppeln). His office will be in Opole. The post of first Deputy Governor will be entrusted to the man who has been, until now, manager of the Personnel Department of the Silesia-Dabrowa governor's central office.
